

Snowbirds in Summer

Snowbirds in Summer

Hands Across the Border Rally at Wood Acres, Moose Jaw Saskatchewan Canada.

August 29–September 2 2013.

Top photo-by Dori Jardine, Unit 120, our squared circle taken from the 'widows walk' of Wakamow Heights B&B.

Bottom photo-by Len Kroeker, Unit 120. Renewing acquaintances in the warm glow of a setting sun Friday evening.

Total of 21 trailers and motorhomes, from Saskatchewan, Alberta, Montana, Ontario & British Columbia.

The photos aggregate caption 'Snowbirds in Summer' has layers of meaning.

The WBCCI club gathering in Moose Jaw comprises a group of wandering adventurers who spend the summer on the plains and mountains of the Canadian west. Then when the air cools they smell snow in the offing, they fly away south for the winter.

The second layer is, in the far distance of the top photo is the home base of the Canadian Forces Snowbirds Demonstration Team. This WBCCI group toured the Moose Jaw air base discovering the proud history and exciting current activities of this iconic team of service men and women.